

Miguel A Piris is pathologist, author of more than 400 articles in lymphoma diagnosis and cancer molecular pathogenesis, h-index: 74. He is currently Associate Chief of Pathology at the Fundacion Jimenez Diaz, Madrid, Spain.

Previous positions:

- Chief of Service at the Pathology Department in the Hospital Universitario Marques de Valdecilla, Santander, Spain and Scientific Director at the Research Institute IDIVAL.
- Director of the Molecular Pathology Program at the Spanish National Cancer Centre (CNIO) for 12 years
- Past-president of the Spanish Society of Pathology and President of the European Association for Haematopathology 2004-2005.

Dr Piris has been the PI in multiple research projects funded by EU. MINECO-Spain and Spanish Association for Cancer Research